

Thanks to everyone who helped backstage

Allan Bone
Jean Latter
Ann Blandford
Brian White
Colin Burdick
Anton Banham

More details about the Guild and forthcoming productions can be found on our website:

www.charingguild.com

We are grateful to all our Members and Friends for their interest and involvement in the Guild.

We are always pleased to welcome new active Members and supportive Friends.

Please contact our Honorary Secretary Valerie Parsons for details. Her address is 54A Queens Road, Ashford TN24 8HF. Tel: 01233 631559.

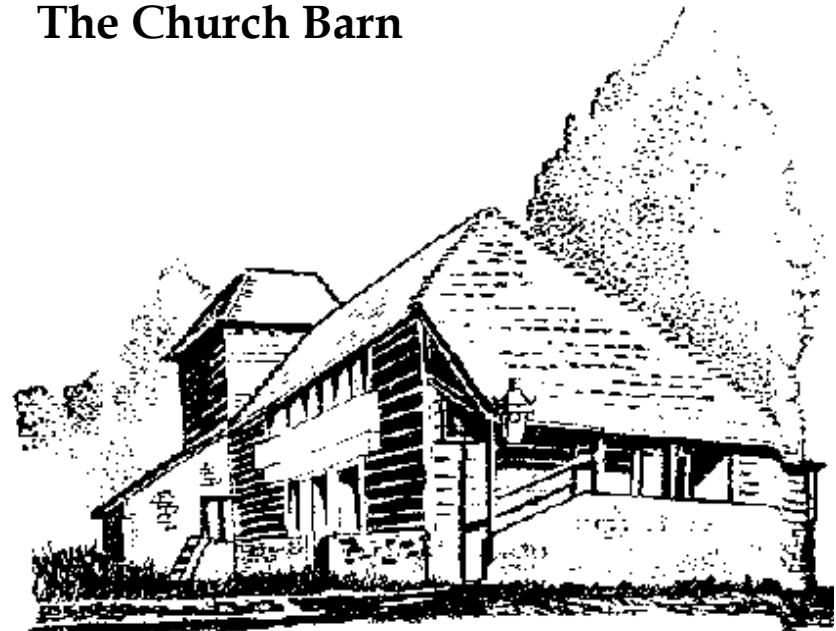

CHARING GUILD OF PLAYERS

TWO FOR THE PRICE OF ONE

TWO ONE-ACT PLAYS

February 2011

The Church Barn

A Little Box Of Oblivion

by Stephen Bean

Cast

Woman	Cherie Hamlet-Smith
Cool	Sarah MacKinnon
Neuro	Valerie Parsons
Doom	John Easun
Dick	Michael Headley

Directed by Carolyn Banham

Scene: A bench in a run down inner city park

This 'absurd' play starts with a cardboard box being left on a park bench. A series of motley characters arrive. Their various theories about the contents of the box are all very far fetched but in this age of security minded officials and threats of terrorism there may be a sober truth to be found.

Between Mouthfuls

by Alan Ayckbourn

Cast

Waiter	Mark Woods
Pearce	Nick Hawley
Mrs Pearce	Marguerite Morris
Martin	Rayner Missing
Polly	Marian White

Directed by Gill Magson

Scene: A hotel dining room

This play is one of a set of interlinked one-act plays dealing with human eccentricities in Ayckbourn's inimitable way. Here four people have a fateful dinner encounter.